KERRY'S TEA TALK!

Well, hello my lovelies! The OSSAS celebrated its 22nd anniversary another success story. Our volunteers are simply gold; working without expectation of any reimbursement; an exceptional gift to benefit their fellow sugar artists past and future. Thank you all!

I have a big surprise for May 26, so keep watch on FB for my announcement something completely different but totally up my alley!

SUGAR & SPICE (the spice, that's me they say LOL) and everything nice will be discussed and presented at FWS 2016. You want to learn? Then welcome to an inspirational afternoon. There is nothing more entertaining than joining together sharing thoughts and ideas about decorative sugar; after all it's the thing we most love to do! With wedding season upon us here's a chance to gather a few new techniques to update skills and gain new perspective. Award winning artists with incredible resumes have volunteered to spend time showing new concepts and mediums ranging from chocolate, gum paste, rolled fondant and buttercream; surprise ideas that will appeal to all levels. Presentations will include elements and instruction to help create amazing cakes, toppers, sugar flowers or side designs and accents. I always figure if I learn three things when I attend an afternoon of workshops that the time is very well spent and worth the price of admission. Bring a notebook to keep track.

GOOD NEWS: Brilliant coverage of our recent show was seen in The Tulsa World, Baking Business Australia, Cake

Craft & Decoration UK and Baking Buyer US and Modern Wedding Cakes Australia, Cakes & Sugarcraft and American Cake Decorating.

HOTEL: The Doubletree Warren Place will honor the show rate of $81 for FWS 2016, but you must let me know by e-mail directly and I will call and get your name listed.

NEWCOMER'S INFO: The drill at FWS, each artist hosts a table and demonstrates his/her chosen project. There will be two shifts of demonstrators. Visitors can move at will from one table to another, just like musical chairs.

LOCATION: Heading Westbound on I-44? Take the Yale exit, then proceed turning right onto Yale, then continue to 21st Street, turn left. The TULSA STATE FAIRGROUNDS are on the right. Enter Gate 12 and proceed to Central Park Hall. Enter by the south door.

EXCLUSIVE: The #OSSAS will have some new magazines and books for purchase and of course Sheila Brooks, Cake Craft Shoppe will be here from Houston with lots of equipment for sale, in case you need to stock up. There is nothing like touching, seeing and feeling before you buy! If you need something specific contact Sheila directly and she will bring it along with her – saving shipping costs.
